Hi Joel,

Sorry I missed you last week while I was in DC – I know you’ve got lots of things on the burner right now, but wanted to see if I could get your early input on the following itinerary that our respective staff have worked up. It would be helpful to know if you’ve got specific policy/programmatic areas of emphasis and/or stakeholders you’d like to be sure to meet with. Any of the items below can be adjusted/deleted to better fit your needs and interests. I would be happy to discuss this on the phone if that’s easier for you – just let me know. Good luck in Denver – Mike Montgomery is a great resource for you while you’re there.

Thanks

Tomás
